Down East Maine

We have called this "The Calendar From Way Down East" because of our love of the more rural parts of Down East, Maine. Traveling as children to visit Grammie (she was a Cates), we knew we were heading way Down East once we crossed the Singing Bridge in Hancock. On this part of Maine's Coastline, the traffic thins out and the landscape becomes more wild and windswept. We think this region of Down East, Maine deserves a calendar of its own. We hope you enjoy it!

"Postcards From Way Down East"

This DVD features over thirty scenes including a variety of activities – whale watching off Eastport, an artist at work in Addison, lobstering with Ronnie Look, Machias Blueberry Festival, a puffin trip out of Cutler, pottery making in Columbia Falls, wine tasting in Gouldsboro, a boat tour on the Pleasant River, and hiking in Petit Manan National Wildlife Refuge, to name a few. Scenery from Schoodic Point to Princeton punctuates these activities. "Postcards From Way Down East" may be watched as a fascinating hour-long show, or the viewer may select out chapters of interest to plan an outing – from an art tour to a wilderness hike. Shown twice on Maine PBS.
